Thank you Thank you Thank you!

A huge thank you to all who sang in our special choir last Sunday evening at the Bereavement service, to Libby Poppleton and Ian Davidson. A beautiful rendition of the 23rd Psalm, for a very poignant service. Much appreciation from all present. Also thank you to all who joined the choir at Brympton Day Centre memorial service on Thursday. Thank you to all who have prepared All Saints church for its special anniversary - from cleaners, to flower arrangers to wardens. THANK YOU FOR BEING PEOPLE WHOSE FAITH IS ACTIVE - A quote from a visitor last Sunday "The whole church seemed to be full of amazing people having fun making church happen on the ground." Very Proud of Us All.

When the Saints Go Marching A traditional black spiritual, recorded by Louis Armstrong and his orchestra. "We play the song as if it were our birthright". We are all children of the living God. So let's celebrate! Do tap and clap along as well as singing!

O when the saints, (echo) O when the Saints, (echo) O when the Saints go marching in. O Lord I want to be in that number! When the Saints go marching in.

O when the sun, (echo) refused to shine. (echo) O when the sun refused to shine. O Lord I want to be in that number. O when the sun refused to shine.

O when the Saints, (echo) O when the Saints, (echo) O when the Saints go marching in. O Lord I want to be in that number! When the Saints go marching in.

O when they crown (echo) him Lord of all (echo), O when they crown him Lord of all. O Lord I want to be in that number. O when they crown him Lord of all.

O when the Saints, (echo) O when the Saints, (echo) O when the Saints go marching in. O Lord I want to be in that number! When the Saints go marching in.
